Welcome

Welcome to The Side Hustle Rolodex!

Inside this rolodex, you'll find over 50 side hustles that you can use to make some extra income.

In fact, many of them can be transformed into full-time businesses if you wish.

But the main benefit is to help you bring in some additional revenue to help with the rising living costs in the world right now.

Pick the one you like the sound of and run with it...

Let's Dive In...

Side Hustle: Affiliate Marketing

What Is It?: Affiliate marketing is where you promote other people's products and earn a commission for each sale you make.

The biggest companies in the world have affiliate programs to allow you to do this. Amazon, eBay, Target and Apple all allow you to promote their products and pay you a commission on sales you make.

Affiliate marketing is incredibly easy to start and the earning potential is truly unlimited.

Side Hustle: Digital Product Creation

What Is It?: This is the process of creating and selling your own digital products and courses.

Selling online means there is nothing physical that needs creating or even anything to ship.

You simply create a product that provides value and then sell it to people who are interested.

Side Hustle: Email Marketing

What Is It?: Email marketing is the process of creating email lists and then marketing products and services to those lists.

When done legitimately (not spam), this can become an incredibly profitable business model.

All you need is a way to collect emails and then a method to send out emails. This can all be done with an autoresponder service such as Aweber or Getresponse.

Side Hustle: Copywriting

What Is It?: Copywriting is the process of writing with the aim of creating awareness or making sales.

You can write to promote your own products, affiliate products or get paid by companies to write copy for them. If you become a skilled copywriter then the earning potential is totally unlimited.

Most of the top copywriters alive today are multi-millionaires. And you can start right from the comfort of your own home.

Side Hustle: Print On Demand

What Is It?: Print on demand is where you print designs onto objects and sell them online.

The great thing is you can do this without actually having to touch any items yourself.

You simply create a store on a platform such as Etsy, add your designs and then use a third party fulfilment platform to make and ship the products.

You can sell items such as t-shirts, mugs, towels, phone cases, hats and more.
